

I am against the proposed changes to FM frequencies. I do not want low power FM transmissions to take over the frequencies that are already in existence such as the AIR1 station that I listen to at 90.1 FM.